Providing kids and families with the support they need in their early years is crucial, but at the moment too many kids and families in Logan are missing out.

With a state election around the corner, we have a chance to change that.

Join us at the Logan Together & Thrive by Five early years community forum and share your experiences of early education, health and community services with local MPs and candidates for the upcoming election.

This is your opportunity to hear directly from – and ask questions of – local MPs and candidates about how they will improve support for Queensland kids in their early years.
